

Titus 2 Sunday Bible Study
What's the Point if We Aren't Transformed?

Titus 2:5 (Amp) To be self-controlled, chaste, homemakers, good-natured (kindhearted), adapting and subordinating themselves to their husbands, that the word of God may not be exposed to reproach (blasphemed or discredited).

Blasphēmēō: to speak reproachfully, rail at, revile, calumniate (make false statements), blaspheme; to be evil spoken of, reviled, railed at

Reverence – Who are you _____?

Devout – Are you _____ serving God?

Sacred Service – Do you really believe you are practicing a _____ service?

Slander – Is it a _____ or is it slander?

Slaves to Drink – Just because you can, does that make it _____?

Good Counsel – What is the plumb line of your _____?

Sane and Sober of Mind – Are you _____?

How to Love Your Husband – Is your husband your _____?

How to Love Your Children – How are you making the children in your life _____?

Self Controlled – What _____ do you need to demonstrate more self control?

Chaste – Are you being chaste or are you _____?

Homemakers – How is your _____?

Good-natured (Kindhearted) – Are you practicing random acts of _____?

Submission to Authority – Do you _____ appropriately?

Take Away's:

1. Has there been any growth in these areas?
2. Has anyone has seen the growth?
3. Do you need accountability in any of these areas?