

Titus 2 Sunday Bible Study
Do You Have a Heart Like David?

1. His _____, because they are enacted by Him as our Sovereign.
2. His _____, because they are the rule both of His providence and of our obedience.
3. His _____, because they are solemnly declared to the world and attested beyond contradiction.
4. His _____, because given with authority, and (as the word signifies) lodged with us as a trust.
5. His _____, because prescribed to us and not left indifferent.
6. His _____, or saying, because it is the declaration of His mind, and Christ, the essential eternal Word, is all in all in it.
7. His _____, because framed in infinite wisdom, and because by them we must both judge and be judged.
8. His _____, because it is all holy, just, and good, and the rule and standard of righteousness.
9. His _____, because they are fixed and determined, and of perpetual obligation.
10. His _____, or faithfulness, because the principles upon which the divine law is built are eternal truths.

Matthew Henry's Commentary on Psalm 119

Read Psalm 119:97-104

What happens when we meditate on His Word all the day:

1. Become _____ than our enemies (v.98)
2. Gain more _____ than all my teachers (v. 99)
3. Develop more _____ than the aged (v. 100)
4. Able to _____ from evil ways (v. 101)
5. _____ a sophisticated taste for His Word (v. 103)

Aim: Listen, memorize, saturate, drown yourself in the Word.
